Foreword

To You, the Longwood Student, we present
The 1952 Virginian. May you see portrayed here pleasant memories of your year at Longwood College, as we have seen the Spirit of Longwood mirrored in your smiles, in your work, and even in your tears. Through you the Spirit of Longwood becomes not an ideal, but a reality. If you can find a touch of this Spirit and these memories, we shall feel that our work has been rewarded.

Dedication

TO OUR PARENTS

To you, Our Parents and Guardians, we gratefully dedicate this, the 1952 Virginian. In so doing, we hope to express some part of the love and honor we have for you. We thank you for your faith in us, your guidance, your labors, and your love.

DEDICATION OF BUILDINGS

Through the untiring efforts of countless people, among whom are Dr. Joseph L. Jarman, late president of the college, and Dr. Dabney S. Lancaster, our present president, October 20, 1951, was made a memorable occasion for Longwood College. Alumnae, students, faculty, administration, and friends joined in the dedicatory exercises of Stevens Hall, the science building;

Jarman Hall, the auditorium and music building; and Tabb Hall, a dormitory. These buildings bear the names of three people—Edith Stevens, Joseph Leonard Jarman, and Jennie Masters Tabb, respectively—who made Longwood College a better place for their having been a part of it.

On this same momentous day, the Alumnae Association presented to the college a beautiful organ as a memorial to Dr. Jarman and his love of music.

To the students of Longwood, now and in the future, a challenge has been offered. These buildings have been presented to offer greater service; only through us can such service be realized. These buildings were dedicated to the memory of those who served. We, too, can serve.

THE SPIRIT OF LONGWOOD

THE COLLEGE

DR. DABNEY S. LANCASTER
President

Dr. Lancaster has endeared himself to all Longwood students by his spirit of friendship and of ready service. To him, we are indebted for many improvements, visible not only in material substance, but also in scholarly advancement.

HISTORY

As many events in the history of the world have been immortalized in song, so the senior class may well connect its memories with melodic strains.

It was Going Home for us when we returned to "Happy" and "Tippy Toe" in September. What a wonderful experience it was to initiate the frosh into the mysteries of matriculation and coke parties. Oh, the excitement of our own initiation into the professional world! Hand Me Down My Teaching Slippers was the cry.

Hardly had the mortarboards settled over our wise brows when the hour was at hand to elect Ethel

Dr. Lancaster caps the seniors

Straw as our Circus chairman. Her magnificent direction was equaled only by the stunt which resulted. On Circus night, the very angels in the heavens sang, and the devils howled that The Devil Had Gotten His Due. And the senior class got theirs—first place!

The lights dimmed, and the band played Winter Wonderland as Bunnie Ricks, senior dance chairman, and Betsy Gravely, honorary classman, ushered in the winter season.

Through the Golden Days of that spring, we snatched

Senior Circus Skit—"The Devil Gets His Due"

Seniors Dance in the Winter Wonderland

at each note of the fast-closing refrain as Singing We Neared the End. Our little sisters took up the melody . . . The Torch Is All Aglow . . . and we realized that we were saying goodbye to Dr. Schlegel, our wonderful friend and adviser, and to our Alma Mater. There were tears in our eyes, but I'll Be Seeing You was on the lips of every senior, for we knew that we would often meet again in these beloved Halls of Ivy.

House Council

"WILL you-all accept a call-down?" asked the house council member as she opened the door and found a group playing bridge, eating, and frequently giggling, during one of those after-eleven parties.

That is just one of the many examples of the house council on the job. The majority of the student body, even though occasionally indulging in an after-hours spree, honors the efforts of the council in

Hill, sophomore; and Georgette Puryear, freshman.

For the first time, the House Council sponsored a booth at Circus. It featured the expert fortune-telling of the widely known "Mlle. Tippy-toe Tabb," dressed in appropriate gypsy attire. The booth provided a small financial gain for the council and much fun for those who helped with it.

Throughout the year, the college house-maintaining that peace and quiet necessary for rest and study.

The purpose of the house council is to set up and enforce regulations pertaining to the dormitories. We feel that this year has been an excellent one for our group. Pat Tuggle served as our efficient president; the other officers were Stokes Overbey, vice-president; Jackie Lackey, secretary; and Natalie Lancaster, treasurer. House presidents, who served capably, were Maria Jackson, senior; Helen Castros, junior; Lyn mothers and hostesses have been very helpful and cooperative. We wish to thank Mrs. Eastham, Miss Hamner, Mrs. Conner, Mrs. Tabb, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Holladay, and Mrs. Rex.

In conclusion, it should be emphasized that the work of the House Council would not have been possible without the hall presidents, who are elected by their respective halls. With the support and cooperation of the student body, these hall presidents are responsible for making the dormitories a better place in which to live.

Student Standards

WITH our purpose firmly in mind, we of Student Standards again acted as "a clearing house for problems between the student body and the faculty and administration."

One of our first projects brought about a change in the receiving line at dances. Receiving lines that once consisted of members of the faculty and administration now consist of the officers of the class or clubs and their sponsors.

mittees studied problems on the campus and made suggestions for improvements. Some of the projects studied were the following: room assignments, standards of elections, and relations between us, the faculty, and the students.

As a result of a suggestion from the students, we worked out a proposal to change the quiet hours in the dormitories. Submitted to the student body, the suggestion was passed and went into effect March 10.

Because of the lengthy dining hall announcements, we placed a bulletin board outside the dining hall. Daily, the list of regular and called meetings is posted and is checked by the heads of the organization. In addition to this a special committee saw to it that the main bulletin boards were dressed up and rearranged under special headings: namely, for sale, church news, and rides. During the year various com-

The Rotunda

WITH Mary Jo Smith as editor and Dr. Simonini as new adviser, the Rotunda was bound to be, like the movies, "better than ever." On this optimistic note the staff of the college bi-weekly enthusiastically began their year of hard work.

Perhaps the staff's enthusiasm was dampened from time to time by the trials of too much copy or too little space or too few helpers, but the sight of the finished product on Wednesday night was enough to make all feel that their efforts were not in vain and to send them on their way ready to tackle the next issue with renewed enthusiasm.

Celeste Bishop, business manager, displayed an expert ability to scare away creditors and even managed to juggle the books well enough to bring the Rotunda out of the red.

Editor Mo Jo was ably assisted by her "right-arm," managing editor Virginia McLean. Together these two kept the rest of the staff on their toes.

Under Janet Wiggins, news editor, reporters scurried about the campus, uncovering the passing events of campus life and occasionally reporting a coveted "scoop." The feature department, headed by Jean Jinnett, entertained the readers with everything from advice on how to pass exams to an application for a date with a Longwood girl. Readers voiced their opinions on various pertinent questions through Stokes Overbey in "Strolling with Stokes" and laughed at Barbara White's "Hello Joe." Sally Brickman informed students with her news column, "In Regards." Barbara Caskey struggled to keep up with rings, pins, and wild weekends. Mary Moore Karr, art editor, brightened each issue with her attractive cut. And Bunny Gibson worked as copy editor to get everything typed and ready for the printers.

The student body was able to read the Rotunda on Wednesday night, thanks to Mary Ann Evans, head of the circulation department, and Carolyn Leffel, advertising manager, who hounded Main Street establishments until the ads came through.

It is true that without everyone of these hardworking staff members the Rotunda couldn't have made its bi-weekly appearance. However, it is equally true that the paper was able to operate because of the generous aid of the student body and of other college organizations. Therefore, the staff says, "Thank you, students, for a wonderful year!"

The Colonnade

“TO the continuation of the characteristic loyalty in both the present and the former students of Longwood College” our first issue of The Colonnade this year was dedicated. We tried to capture in literary form some examples of this characteristic spirit. The first issue was highlighted by a copy of the Presentation speech of the Jarman Memorial Organ by Maria Bristow Starke, class of 1914.

The literary spirit of the present students of Longwood College was evident in the quantity and quality of the stories and essays submitted for the fall prose contest. Margaret Perrow, a freshman, won top honors with her very descriptive story “The Pine.” Betty Collier was awarded second place for “Where the Dead Dreams Go,” a short story; winner of the third prize was Barbara Caskey’s story “Justice.”

A collection of “Letters from Virginia

Poets,” which we featured in this issue, helped us to recognize the contributions of the poets of our state to the field of poetry. These letters were received in reply to an inquiry as to which of their poems was their favorite. We were so proud of their letters that we wanted to share them with the readers of The Colonnade.

The goal of The Colonnade is to publish results of the best thinking and writing done by Longwood College students. The Colonnade was founded by Beorc Eh Thorn, English honor society, with the purpose of stimulating interest in creative writing and literary research among the college students. With this goal in mind, the members of the staff and board of contributors endeavored to make The Colonnade a literary magazine which would be a credit to Longwood. Patricia Taylor served as managing editor, and Maxine Watts as business manager. Helen Tanner and Lauralee Fritts served as editors of essays and short stories respectively; Joanne Steck, as review editor, turned out busy thoughts on the latest books. Flora Ballowe was poetry editor. Lucy Jane Morton mixed paints and gave the magazine an artistic touch. We all found laughs in Prich Matthew's humor page. How could any printer have translated our pencil scrawls into printed form without the services of Betty Lou Harman, head typist, and her assistants! How could we have distributed the finished product without Mildred Blessing and Nancy Lawrence, who served in the circulation department!

For our second issue, we decided to experiment with a central theme. Because February is such an eventful month, our thoughts naturally turned to visions of Valentine poetry, cherry trees, and Honest Abe. Mary M. Karr, who served as art editor for this issue, cleverly carried out the theme with her illustrations. Margaret Perrow's very unusual portrayal of animal social life, "Every Groundhog Has His Day," gave a new slant to an old February superstition. Mary Jo Smith's leap-year calendar gave Longwood lasses a few expert tips on leap-year strategy. John Crafton's letter "Brother Beware!" gave the masculine point of view on how to escape this "marriage fever." Two of Longwood's poets, Pat Taylor and Barbara Assaid, brought forth their versions of the Valentine sentiments of two different ages. On the more serious side, studies of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington and Thomas Edison presented new food for thought about these famous personages.

Without the constant assistance and timely advice of our advisers—Miss Lucille Jennings, Mr. Boyd Coyner, Dr. Francis Simkins, Miss Ann Ross, and Mrs. Kathleen Cover—we could never have made this year the success that it was.

The Virginian

AS we closed the cover on the last package of annual copy, we had a feeling of satisfaction. All of the annual staff had taken part in the work, happily and successfully. After all, our work was really play with Betty Scott Borkey, as editor, getting the things done so efficiently, and Mr. McCorkle, our adviser, on hand with his invaluable suggestions.

pictures taken. Not long thereafter our chase was about the campus with Mr. Dudley, taking the group pictures.

However, before this could happen, we relied upon Harriet Byrd Minichan. In the role of associate editor, she canvassed the school, discussing annual pages with the heads of organizations. Mary Crawford, our business manager, and Polly Brothers,

In review we can see our year as a full-scale effort to publish the best Book ever. Last May, the plans began formulating when Mr. Burton and Mr. Glover came from Lynchburg to help us get organized.

By October Ann Keith Hundley, our photographic editor, had us dashing madly back and forth from classes to Second Floor Rotunda so that we could get individual her assistant, didn't let us forget the subscriptions. Nor could we now forget the endless hours of selling annuals in the halls and in the dorms. We congratulate Mary and Polly; they did a magnificent job of keeping our finances in order.

Perhaps our easiest decision was in making the color of our annual red and white. Thanks to Bunnie Ricks, our art editor, and Miss Bedford, our art adviser, the job of planning the cover design was well done. They did all of the art work for our annual efficiently and cheerfully.

December found us starting our pictures on the way to the engravers. Not long after that, countless hours were spent mounting the individual pictures. Donnie Devine, Jean Pearce, Bobbie Brown, and others worked long and hard; the result was soon on its way to the printers.

During this time members of the staff dashed about, begging treasured snapshots from bulletin boards for our collection in the back of the annual. Betty Scott and Mr. Mac cut and mounted the pictures. Jean Carol Parker, Mary Ann King, and other talented members undertook the task of writing appropriate captions.

Never could we give too much praise to

was notable, we think.

The responsibility for getting all of the articles written for the annual fell upon the capable shoulders of Nell Dalton. Liz Browning, Carolyn Leffel, Pat Altwegg, Mary Denny Wilson, every one of us who had ever touched a typewriter, volunteered help in typing these articles. With Miss Foster's assistance in editing, our material one who started us on our journey and guided us on our way. For your countless hours of help and your words of encouragement, Mr. Mac, we thank you.

May brought "our" annual. We were happy and proud that we had had a part in bringing to the students this picture of Longwood and our life here.

Pi Delta Epsilon

“DO we study Greek?” No, the Greek letters on our keys are symbols for Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary journalism fraternity. Its chief purposes are to promote closer coordination between the different college publications and to give recognition to students who have made notable contributions to our college publications.

This year Flora Ballowe was president; Mary Jo Smith, vice-president; Sarah Cregar, secretary; Mary Moore Karr, treasurer; and Betty Scott Borkey, historian. Other members of our organizations were Mary Crawford, Maria Jackson, and Lucy Jane Morton. Honorary members include Betty Spindler, Mr. Boyd Coyner, Mr. Harry Lancaster, Mr. T. A. McCorkle, Dean William Savage, and Dr. Marvin Schlegel.

Invitations were extended to those students who had participated in one or more of the three college publications. On November 26 the following candidates were duly initiated: Celeste Bishop, Roberta Browning, Betty Campbell, Nell Dalton, Lauralee Fritts, Nancy Garbee, Virginia McLean, Bunnie Ricks, Joanne Steck, Patricia Taylor, Maxine Watts, Janet Wiggins, and Peggy Wilson.

In the fall our activities centered around the convention of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, which we sponsored in collaboration with the Hampden-Sydney chapter, November 30 through December 1. The highlight of the VIPA Convention consisted of a banquet at Hampden-Sydney, at which Mr. J. J. Kilpatrick, editor of The Richmond News Leader, was the speaker.

Our organization, also, took part in other activities this year. Members of Pi Delta Epsilon were encouraged to aid in securing publicity for the college by reporting school events.

With the whole-hearted cooperation of all members, the succeeding years should bring forth even greater achievement.

Alpha Kappa Gamma

ALPHA Kappa Gamma is an honorary society formed for the purpose of recognizing students who have proved themselves outstanding in constructive leadership. Character is the first consideration for membership in the organization.

The Joan Circle had for its capable advisers this year Miss Burger and Miss Stubbs. The officers were Jean Ridenour, president; Mary Crawford, vice-president; Martha Alice Wilson, secretary; and Pat Tuggle, treasurer. The other members when school opened were Mary Helen Cook, Maria Jackson, Shirley Livesay, and Margaret Thomas.

During the year the following girls were tapped: Marian Beckner, Mildred Blessing, Betty Scott Borkey, Polly Brothers, Mary Crawford, Nell Dalton, Nancy Garbee, Lucy Page Hall, Peggy Harris, Dolores Hoback, Virginia McLean, Winnie Murdock, Bobbie Obenshain, Mary Jo Smith, and Nancy Walker. Mrs. Dabney S. Lancaster was invited to become an honorary member of Joan Circle.

The annual circus in October was held in Jarman Hall. Maria Jackson was chosen Queen; her attendants were Sarah Harvie, Blanton Ferguson, and Jean Carol Parker. The theme, "Merry-Go-Round the World," was portrayed by the Queen and the Court.

Queen's College in Charlotte, N. C., was the meeting place for the annual convention. Delegates from Joan Circle were Mildred Blessing, Mary Helen Cook, Dolores Hoback, Maria Jackson, Pat Tuggle, Martha Alice Wilson and Miss Chambers. We were very proud of Maria, who was elected editor of The Torchbearer, the national publication of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

To foster high ideals, to promote coordination of various college activities, and to preserve the ideals and traditions of the college—these are the purposes of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Kappa Delta Pi

THE Beta Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, since its foundation in 1928, has had as its main purpose the encouragement of high professional, intellectual, and personal standards.

Our officers for the year were Mildred Blessing, president; Lauralee Fritts, vice-president; Dorothy Gregory, secretary; Betty Lou Harman, treasurer; and Eleanor Weddle, historian. Under the wise guidance of Dr. Ethel Sutherland, these officers worked faithfully to merit the confidence placed in them.

In November the names of fifteen Kappa Delta Pians were added to the Chapter roll. These were Celeste Bishop, Polly Brothers, Barbara Cotton, Nancy Driskill, Sarah Harvie, Sonia Kile, Virginia McLean, Gene Moore, Stokes Overbey, Nancy Purdum, Elizabeth Stone, Helen Tanner, Pat Taylor, Janet Wiggins, and Elizabeth Wilkinson.

In November Dr. Kilpatrick's birthday was observed in cooperation with the other educational fraternities on campus. Other educational programs included a discussion by a superintendent of schools concerning the desirable qualities of a teacher. Our knowledge of modern Egypt was increased by the presentation of slides and an accompanying lecture.

Since one of our goals is to develop a greater degree of friendliness and understanding between the students of Longwood and the members of the college faculty, many of the college officials were invited to attend our Christmas banquet.

In March, Sarah Harvie traveled to East Lansing, Michigan, to attend the eighteenth Biennial Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi. New members were initiated in March. We honored the freshmen and sophomores who ranked in the upper quartile of their respective classes at a tea-reception in the spring. We sincerely believe that the chapter has given its members something of lasting value.

Beorc Eh Thorn

BEORC Eh Thorn, the English honor society on the Longwood campus, derives its name from three old English runic letters, symbolizing the study of literature, the inspiration of creative writing, and the discipline necessary to achieve literary expression. Beorc Eh Thorn had its beginning in 1935 under the leadership of Mr. James Grainger, head of the English Department at that time. Mr. Grainger's son designed the Beorc Eh Thorn pin, bearing the emblem of the winged horse, Pegasus.

One of the major objectives of Beorc Eh Thorn this year has been to revise the constitution to meet the new needs felt by both students and faculty advisers. We elected Mrs. Mildred Davis and Dr. R. C. Simonini, Jr. as faculty advisers to Beorc Eh Thorn. Previously the entire English department has acted in an advisory capacity to the organization.

The coming of spring meant an opportunity to welcome our new members. In May we had our annual picnic at Buffalo, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grainger.

It was with regret that we saw our president, Sally Brickman, leave. Norma Gladding, vice-president of Beorc Eh Thorn, took over the duties of the presidency in January, bringing the year to a successful close. Our other officers were Branchy Fristoe, treasurer, and Elizabeth Stone, secretary.

Pi Gamma Mu

"Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

THIS is the motto of Pi Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honor Society. The Virginia Gamma Chapter was established on this campus in 1927 by our beloved Dr. James E. Walmsley, professor emeritus. To encourage young men and women in scientific study of all social problems and to promote cooperation between the branches of social science are the purposes of our group. To us Pi Gamma Mu is more than just another organization; it is a means of continual growth in a field of service which is of importance to our entire lives.

G. Moss as our sponsor. To Dr. Moss, who was always there with a word of wisdom and encouragement, we would like to say "thank you." He was an inspiration to us all.

In February Jack Huegal became an alumnus of Longwood, and Pi Gamma Mu lost its first vice-president; but Virginia Manvell and William Overbey accepted bids. It was a pleasure to welcome them as new members.

Lauralee Fritts, with her zeal for getting things done, served as our president in 1951-52. Other officers working with her were Mildred Bright, vice-president; Nell Dalton, treasurer; and Vera Bryant, secretary.

Early in the fall we welcomed Dr. C. G.

In the spring our annual banquet was held at Longwood House, and new members were welcomed into the chapter. Soon June arrived, and it was commencement time again. It was at this event that the members of Pi Gamma Mu presented, as a symbol of outstanding interest and ability in the social science, a key to the student at Longwood who had proved himself most worthy. This presentation ended the school year, but to members of Pi Gamma Mu it was only a beginning of the things we hope to accomplish in the field of social science.

Granddaughters Club

THE purpose of the Granddaughters Club is to bring together all girls whose mothers or grandmothers attended Longwood College and to interest the high school students of the State in attending Longwood College. This year we were fortunate in having twenty-two new mem-card party, and the reception for Virgil Fox. Our spring activities included assisting the Alumnae Secretary in sending out magazines and having fun Founders Day showing the guests around the college. A picnic at Longwood Estate for all the members was one of the highlights of the year.

bers. They were initiated in the fall at a solemn ceremony followed by a party.

As our first activity of the year, we acted as hostesses to the Alumnae and other guests during the week-end of the dedication of our new buildings. Other activities participated in were circus, selling Christmas cards, serving at the Alumnae

The officers for the year were as follows: president, Lelia Wingfield; vice-president, Betty Frances Gillette; secretary, Jackie Palmer; and treasurer, Patricia Altwegg. Their capable leadership guided us successfully through the year. Much credit goes to Miss Wall, our adviser, who aided us greatly through the year.

Longwood Players

THE Longwood Players, under the direction of Dr. C. L. S. Earley, had a successful season of two plays and an assembly program. Ladies in Retirement, a psychological melodrama, was presented in November. Cleo Holladay, Nancy Nelson, Sally Wilson, Jean Jinnett, Marian Thompson, Barbara White, and Ed Stanfield, of Hampden-Sydney, played with distinction. Harold Hutter, Madison McClintic, Tom Moore, Herb Goodman, Charles Bedford, and Ethel Straw, assisted by Dr. Earley's play-production class, constructed an admirable set.

For Founder's Day, March 29, the Longwood Players and Hampden-Sydney Jongleurs presented the second show, Light Up the Sky, a sophisticated farce concerning theater people. In April the troupe gave an assembly program of three one-act plays. In March our director, Dr. Earley, and members of the club journeyed to Augusta, Ga., to a convention of the Southwest Theater Group. Members of the club and guests spent May 9, 10, and 11 in New York visiting the theater.

The officers for the year were the following: president, Ethel Straw; vice-president, Betty Scott Borkey; secretary, Cleo Holladay; treasurer, Barbara White; and technical director, Harold Hutter. The executive board included Lucy Jane Morton as designer; Nathalie Lancaster in charge of costumes; Jean Jinnett as head of publicity; and Doris Underwood and Mary Anne King as social chairmen. Outstanding work was done backstage by Gene Moore and Betty Frances Gillette on properties; Audrey Morse on programs; Virginia Sutherland on costumes; Fifi Carter on music; and Anne Parsons, Ann Carter Wendenburg, Gaynelle Edwards, and Juanita Hudson on the set.

In September Longwood College Dramatic Club became Longwood Players, under a new and revised constitution. With the superb support and aid of Dr. Earley, the club has stimulated a greater interest in dramatics on campus.

Future Teachers of America

THE Future Teachers of America is an organization that presents college students with the opportunity for actual participation in both state and national associations. It seeks to promote professional leadership, to further the activities of the National Education Association, to study the practices of the teaching profession, and to develop desirable qualities in our members in order that they may be good leaders in the field of education.

Our particular group is called the J. L. Jarman chapter. It was organized November, 1939, and received its charter from the National Education Association in 1940. In order to become a member of this group, a student must be recommended by the head of her department and sanctioned by its members. Members are initiated in the fall and in the spring of the year.

This year we gave a reception for all student teachers and supervisors. Thus we hope to strengthen the unity between the College and the training school. We have also set up our own Future Teachers of America library, which we hope will be an asset to our chapter. Perhaps the most interesting meeting was the one at which the Future Teachers of America met with A. C. E. and Kappa Delta Pi, in order to honor the eightieth birthday of William H. Kilpatrick. Dr. John P. Wynne, our faithful adviser, conducted the program in a most interesting manner. With his guidance we were able to schedule other interesting and worthwhile programs.

For their leadership we recognize our officers: Betty Barnes, president; Norma Gladding, vice-president; Flora Ballowe, secretary; Dot Gregory, treasurer; and Mary Moore Karr, librarian.

Association of Childhood Education

THE Association of Childhood Education was formed in 1930 by the merging of two organizations, the International Kindergarten Union and the National Council of Primary Education. It is an organization for those people who are interested in the education of children.

The purposes of the Association are to work for the education and well-being of children; to bring into active cooperation all groups interested in children in the home, the school, and the community; to promote desirable educational programs and practices in the elementary schools, including the nursery school, the kindergarten, the primary and the intermediate; and to raise the standard of professional training for teachers and leaders in the field. To achieve these purposes the Association is guided by a flexible philosophy of education.

We initiated thirty-nine new elementary majors this year. Mary Crawford, our capable president, led us through a successful year. Assisting Mary were Joyce Gatling, who gave us some excellent programs; Catherine Toxey, secretary; and Vera Bryant, treasurer. Miss Alice Carter was our capable friend and adviser.

Our programs this year were based on a problem in which we were all interested: student teaching and its responsibilities. At one of our first meetings Miss Carter spoke to us about what the Association of Childhood Education can mean to us while in college and after graduation. Supervisors from each grade level gave interesting talks on what they expected of student teachers. Seniors who had completed their practice teaching led us in a panel discussion of problems which they had encountered.

The high light of the year was a party in honor of the freshmen and sophomores who are elementary majors.

Eastern Shore Club

ACCOMACK and Northampton, these names make one think of only one place, the Eastern Shore. We have only a few girls from here, but this peninsula is foremost in the mind of every girl from the other side of the Chesapeake Bay.

It was with sadness that we packed our trunks to embark from the sandy beaches in September, but as everyone does when she comes to Longwood, we found that before long we were all adjusted and back in the swing of things.

Our club welcomed two new members this year: Sue Mason and Martha Smith. We also welcomed with great joy our new sponsor, Mrs. Simonini. Since we had been without a sponsor for a few years, we were especially delighted with this addition. Back with us also were Frances, Letitia, and Ann.

One purpose of our club is to interest high-school girls from the Eastern Shore in coming to Longwood. This was done through correspondence and asking girls to visit the college on weekends. Another purpose is to get to know the girls from the Eastern Shore better, and this was done through out get-togethers.

Our senior members made us proud, as our pretty Frances Turner was elected Queen to reign over May Day, and Norma Gladding was president of Beorc Eh Thorn. We bade those girls a sad farewell in June along with our other seniors, Frances Stringfellow and Sue Nelson.

Our officer for this year was Ann Edmonds, president.

Northern Neck Club

BETWEEN the Potomac and the Rappahannock Rivers is the Northern Neck of Virginia. This peninsula is composed of five counties: King George, Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond, and Westmoreland. This small strip of land captures the hearts of those who live or visit there.

The Northern Neck Club originated in 1926 with its motto: Fishing for Knowledge. Our club motto and purposes are the same today. The main purpose of the club is to stimulate interest among high-school seniors in attending Longwood College. The club is purely social, and we admit we have a wonderful time together.

The new members entering our club this year were the following: Frances Northern, Catherine Roberts, Anna Mae Sanders, Lynette Talley, Ellen Brent Dize, Edna Mae Trader, Margie Smallwood, Barbara Hough, Mary Jones, Frances Mottley, and Mary Coles. We welcomed our new members at a hamburger feast. Other enjoyable events of the year include a tea at Longwood Estate, a Christmas party at Tye's Inn in the Northern Neck, and our spring picnic at Longwood Estate.

Our thanks for being a wonderful adviser and faithful friend go to "Charlie Hop," who has helped in every way possible to make our club a success.

Our club officers were Peggy Wilson, president; Ann Conley, vice-president; Jeanne Mercer, secretary; Johanna Biddlecomb, treasurer; Frances Northern and Catherine Roberts, reporters.

Richmond Club

"GEE, it's good to see ya! What did you do on your vacation? Is that so?" So we began a new college year. The Richmond Club was glad to welcome many charming freshmen from the capital of the Old Dominion. First of all, as the year got under way, we entertained our freshmen at a picnic where we chattered about the things we had done during the summer. Our picnics held at Longwood Estate in the fall and spring are a tradition with us.

This Christmas as the holiday's good cheer was in full swing, the alumnae entertained us with a lovely Christmas tea at Miller and Rhoads. Several high-school seniors, who were prospective Longwood students, also attended the tea. We met them with the friendly spirit of our school, and they were more enthusiastic than ever about coming to Longwood. The juke-box dances which the club sponsors are held in

One of our main purposes is to interest Richmond high-school girls in coming to Longwood College. This we have done by individual correspondence, by inviting girls to the college on the weekends, and by having parties in Richmond in their honor. Our club enables us to have closer relationship with our alumnae at home. Each spring several members of the Richmond Club are invited to attend the alumnae picnic held in Richmond. When our alumnae are on our campus, we act as hostesses showing the fall and spring and provide a good time for all as well as an increasing sum for our treasury. We were fortunate this year in having more publicity in the Richmond News Leader for our new girls.

We were led through a most joyous year by Mrs. Cover, our faculty sponsor. Our officers for the year were Virginia McLean, president; Delores Ann Crowder, vice-president; Elleanor Koch, secretary and treasurer; and Nancy Adkins, reporter.

Southwest Virginia Club

THE Southwest Virginia Club started its second year on the Longwood campus with a host of new members. We got together and asked such questions as these: Where are you from? Surely you know so-and-so! We were happy and enthusiastic; we were friends.

Our officers for the year were: Anne Moseley of Roanoke, president; Helen Castros of Roanoke, vice-president; May Henry Sadler of Tazewell, secretary; and Eleanor Weddle of Roanoke, treasurer. Miss Emily

In Roanoke, even before school started in September, the Roanoke alumnae entertained all of us "old girls" and the girls who would be freshmen, with a lovely tea. It was fun to be together again, especially to meet our new freshmen. During the year we entertained on our campus, girls who were seniors in high schools throughout Southwest Virginia. We hoped that they would catch the Longwood spirit in their brief stay and would want to make it their home for the next four years. Our annual Barksdale, a Southwest Virginian herself, was our capable adviser and was always ready to help us.

Since one of the club's objectives is to interest girls from our part of the state in Longwood, we wrote personal letters to prospective students. Each member of the club was given the name of a prospective student and was to "adopt" this girl and through letters help her to come to love Longwood as we do.

juke-box dance in January proved to be a great success. Everyone had a wonderful time, and our treasury was enriched by some hard cash, quite useful.

We were proud of many of our members who received top honors and who held offices too numerous to mention.

Here's hoping that next year will bring us a bigger and better club and will be happy and successful for all.

The French and Spanish Clubs

THE library was the scene and October the time when Le Cercle Francais had its first meeting of the year. After the old students had greeted each other with "Bonjour" and the new students had introduced themselves, we settled down to planning the activities of the year.

Our plans were successful, for at each monthly meeting we had fun singing French songs, playing games, giving skits, and learning of France and her culture. We especially enjoyed the gay Christmas party given with the Spanish Club and the movie, SYMPHONIE PASTORALE, which Le Cercle brought to the college in April.

Upon returning from Thanksgiving, we found a wonderful surprise. Our French informant, Catherine Ollivary, had arrived from Paris. Le Cercle Francais could not have done without the help rendered by Katty and by our adviser, Miss Draper.

What a big year this has been for El Club Espanol! We immediately began working on our Circus booth, with its gay senoritas, and peanuts, of course. Our big night was December 7, the night of the fiesta. We celebrated in true Spanish style, with posadas, aguinaldos, pinatas, and our big event, the bull-fight. Presented on February 7, our Spanish movie, "Locura de Amor," was a huge success. This spring we began working on a Spanish-English cookbook.

Our fun-packed programs included skits, a quiz program with los Rebeldes vs. los Renegados, piano selections played by Esther Acosta, our new Puerto Rican friend, and always songs. How can we ever forget our own special version of "O Cairo!" And as always, we worked toward our motto: "Lazos mas estrechos entre las Americas."

Home Economics Club

OUR Longwood Home Economics Club, a member of the college section of the American Home Economics Association and the Virginia Home Economics Association, has been guided this year by the following officers: Helen Barrow, president; Dorothy Gregory, vice-president; Mary Elizabeth Bennett, secretary; Joanne Pershing, treasurer; Miss Fern Staggs, sponsor.

Our monthly meetings have been varied and interesting. We have had several speakers who have inspired us to a more professional attitude.

In February our meeting was educational. The freshmen presented a program in play form about the organization of our national home-economics association. In December, we took orders for our annual fruit cake and plum pudding sale. This activity proved successful. During the year, we sold the United Nations Cook Books, and the profits of this sale were sent to the National Headquarters to be used for our home for home economics. We were fortunate this year in being allowed to send two delegates to the Regional Conference of American Home Economics Association in Morgantown, West Virginia. Our representatives, Marty Miller and Joanne Pershing, brought many helpful suggestions back to us. This year our staff has been co-operating with our club in many of the projects undertaken. They entertained the various classes at desserts and breakfasts. The club was well represented at the State Convention of the Virginia Home Economics Association. The meeting was held March 20-March 22. Our year's activities were climaxed in May with a tea given in recognition of our seniors. This meeting brought our 1951-1952 club session to a close.

Commercial Club

THE Commercial Club, organized in 1939, is a progressive organization having as its purposes advancement in the knowledge of opportunities in the business field and the furthering of interest in this respect. The social gatherings contribute to the promotion of friendships and good will among the members.

Membership in the club consists of two classes, active and honorary. Active members are those students who major in Business Education. Honorary members are the professors in the Business Education Department. They constitute an advisory board from which a sponsor is elected annually.

At the first meeting of the year new students majoring in Business Education were introduced to the officers of the club and the professors in the Business Education Department. In October the club had its customary booth in the Alpha Kappa Gamma Circus. At our installation service Mr. Robert Crawford, well-known business-man in Farmville, spoke to us on the importance of a college education to us. A Christmas party was the highlight of our December meeting with a visit from Santa. However, the main social event of the year was our annual picnic at Longwood Estate. Our big project for the year was the typing and mimeographing of publicity items to be submitted by the college to various newspapers in the state. Also, we acted as host to the high-school Future Business Leaders of America, who held a spring district meeting at Longwood College.

The officers of the club are Winnie Murdock, president; Peggy Wilson, vice-president; Joyce Cheatham, secretary; Nellie Lucy, treasurer; and Jeanne Mercer, reporter. Mr. N. O. Myers served as sponsor. To him we extend our sincere appreciation for his ever-ready guidance. We are also grateful to the Advisory Board for their participation in our many activities.

Longwood Library League

THIS Library Club is the newest organization on Longwood's campus. Membership includes students who are studying Library Science and those who are on the library staff.

At a meeting held in January, officers for the year were chosen. Elizabeth Browning was elected our president; Bunny Gibson, vice-president; Shirley Ward, secretary; Nan Picinich, treasurer; and Hazel Hart, reporter. We decided to call our club the Longwood Library League or "Tri-L." Advisory members of the club are Miss Irving Armstrong, Miss Terry, Mrs. Martha Jenkins, Mrs. Anne Jeffers, and Dr. Beverly Ruffin. Miss Louise Johnson, Elementary School Librarian, and Miss Kate O'Brien, Librarian, of the Farmville High School, are honorary members.

Social activities in which the group has participated include picnics, luncheons, teas, and informal get-togethers. The club also acted as hostesses at the annual Library Conference held this spring at Longwood.

We hope to promote the growth of school libraries, particularly in Prince Edward County. To further this cause, some of us visited the libraries in the vicinity of Farmville, this spring. We have chosen as our motto: The beginning of a thousand forests lies in a single acorn. We have every expectation that what all we have planted within the year will grow into something good.

The Choir

WE, the members of the Longwood College Choir, are very proud of our accomplishments of the past year. These have been gained through the able direction of our leader, Dr. John W. Molnar, and the hard work and enthusiasm of the entire membership of this organization.

Our first public appearance of the year took place in the fall, when the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club and we gave a concert at the Virginia Educators Association convention in Richmond. We were all very Hampden-Sydney the following night. Our program of Christmas music included several selections from Handel's "Messiah." The spirit of Christmas was strongly felt by audience and singers.

We were thrilled to present in May Gilbert and Sullivan's famous operetta, "The Mikado," with the H. S. G. C. Long months of hard work found us ready to present it. We were proud of our leading soloists: Sarah Harvie, Winston Johnson, Lura Beavers, and Dolly Horne. We proud of the success of our concert.

Immediately following this event, we began practice for our Christmas concert, given annually with the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club. The Choir's Christmas Concert is always the highlight of the Christmas festivities on the campus. This year it took place in our beautiful new auditorium, Jarman Hall. The concert was repeated at shall always remember the keen enjoyment and lasting benefit we derived from preparing and giving our various productions.

Our officers for the year were Ann Moody, president; Nancy Lawrence, secretary; and Sarah Harvie, treasurer. We are grateful to Miss Virgilia Bugg, our sponsor, who inspired us throughout the year.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

“To know Him and to make Him known” is the motto of the Longwood Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. There are chapters on other college and university campuses in the United States, in Canada, and in many countries overseas. These groups are composed of Christians of all denominations who seek to serve Christ on their campuses. Throughout the year, our Longwood Chapter met weekly

Alice Alter and Warner Hutchinson, regional staff workers, were the speakers. A conferette was a new and wonderful experience for us. Alice Alter visited Longwood several times this year, strengthening us with her advice, prayers and suggestions.

on Thursday afternoons for group Bible study. This year we have been studying the Gospel of John. Daily prayer meetings were held to support the work of the group. At the beginning of the year, the Rev. George Kissinger from Achilles, Virginia, delivered a challenging message to us.

A conferette, or miniature conference, was held here at Longwood for the benefit of Longwood and Hampden-Sydney College. Charles Troutman, regional secretary for the Inter-Varsity in the Southeast, and universities of eastern Virginia.

Our officers during 1951-52 were Barbara Cotton, president; Virginia Manvell, prayer chairman; Dorothy Stringfield, secretary-treasurer; Mary Perrow, mission's secretary; and Emily Eggert, publicity chairman.

Our primary aim is to put the Lord Jesus Christ first in our own lives and to live in such a way that others may be led to a personal faith in Him as Savior.

Baptist Student Union

ON September 14, at Camp Greenbay, the Baptist Student Union began the new session with a week-end of fun and inspiration. We remember those sessions, round-table discussions, camp-fire gatherings, and meetings held in the top of the water tower. Sunday we were back at Longwood to welcome the freshmen.

Our beloved Dr. Chester Swor led revival services in Farmville in October. Our B. S. U. Convention in Lynchburg was another great pleasure. We chartered a bus and were off for an inspiring week-end with other B. S. U.'ers from all over the State. The Freshmen Executive Council successfully presented Freshmen Week, December 2-9, led by Phyllis Isaacs, their president.

"In All Thy Ways . . . God" was the theme of our Vocational Emphasis Week, February 4-11. And the good supper down at the Church! Helen Poarch, State B. S. U. president, spoke to us then about her experiences last year as the Virginia B. S. U. summer missionary to Hawaii. March 2 we held the installation service for the new B. S. U. Council. We will remember the first week-end in April with Dr. J. P. Allen leading a youth revival and speaking at our B. S. U. banquet in the Tea Room. April 18 we left for Arlington for our B. S. U. Retreat. Senior Day in May meant the year was ending, but we now look forward to being together at Ridgecrest for B. S. U. Week.

Our gratitude goes to "Peakie," Mr. Bruner, and Dr. Johnson for their loyal support that made all of the wonderful things of B. S. U. possible this year. Our Executive Council officers this year were Gladys Baker, Babs Booker, Mary Lou Burnette, Beulah Carter, Ann Crowder, Wanda Doll, Joyce Gatling, Dolly Horne, Phyllis Isaacs, Eleanor Koch, Mary Miller, Diane Murray, Jean Carol Parker, Elizabeth Stone, Dot Stringfield, Ann Thomas, Marilyn Thompson, and Eleanor Weddle. We were supported by a faithful Greater Council, too.

Wesley Foundation

THE year began with our party and banquet for all the new Methodist students. Wesley Foundation was well attended every Sunday night, with interesting student-led discussions. The Sunday evening waffle suppers at the student center were times of great fun and fellowship.

The Longwood conference this year was one of the most successful we have ever had, with delegates from seven colleges present. Our Wesley Foundation was also well represented at other conferences, with large delegations going to Natural Bridge, the University of Virginia, Virginia State, and Madison.

At Thanksgiving and at Christmas, and on other special occasions, parties were enjoyed. The fellowship hours on Sunday nights after church gave Methodist students another opportunity to get together to talk and sing. In January we began a series of discussions of marriage. At one of these meetings we were host to other youth groups for Union Vespers.

In February a farewell party was held for Ann Lawrence, our president, who was graduating. We missed her greatly, especially when we held our spring retreat to make plans for the new semester. Twice during the year, banquets were held for all Methodist students, with such distinguished speakers as Bishop Garber of Richmond and Dr. Parker of Randolph-Macon. When warm weather came, we took to the out-of-doors with picnics and a hayride.

Our greatest appreciation goes to Miss Ruth Krause, our new director. We also want to thank Mr. Myers, our pastor, and Dr. Haddock, district superintendent, for their assistance. Helping Ann Lawrence were the members of the council and the other officers: Pat Taylor, vice-president; Jo Zitta, secretary; Ellen Porter, treasurer.

Westminster Fellowship

AT the first of the school year, the new students from Longwood and Hampden-Sydney were welcomed with a reception given by the Westminster Fellowship. This was the beginning for our successful year with Mrs. Frank Crawford and the Rev. J. R. Kennedy, our pastor, serving as advisers. Our leaders for the year have been Natalie Lancaster, president; Reid Erwin, vice-president; Jack Hogg, secretary; and Pat Lee, treasurer.

Under the able leadership of Donnie Devine, a variety of interesting programs were presented. The out-standing program for the year took place during the week-end of April 11-12, when a team from the Union Seminary in Richmond visited First Church to lead discussions and the Sunday night program. Among our social activities were a picnic and our monthly supper meetings held the first Sunday of each month alternately at Hampden-Sydney and in the Farmville Presbyterian Church.

Representatives from our "West-Fel" attended Rosslyn Presbytery Conference, last fall. Barbara Rickman and Dick Andrews attended the Synod's Training Conference, this spring. Last summer we sent Joyce Booth to Massanetta as our representative and Marian Thompson and Charlie Talley to Montreat Conference. We hope to send more delegates this summer.

This year has been one of inspiration, recreation, and fellowship. We feel that "West-Fel" has done much to aid our spiritual growth as well as give us rich memories of friendships and fellowship shared.

Newman Club

OUR new year began last June with the dedication of our new church, St. Therese. That was a big event for us, because our hopes and desires to see our church completed were fulfilled.

During that occasion, visiting priests from other diocese took part in the ceremony, and visiting friends from nearby towns were present. Monseignor Stevens represented Bishop Ireton. It was a very impressive ceremony, which ended with a High Mass. After the dedication ceremony a luncheon was served in the Recreation Hall of the college, to which members and friends of the church were invited.

When we returned to school in September, Father MacCarthy and Father Silk had prepared a pleasant party for the old and new members of the club. We then had the opportunity to get acquainted with each other and plan the activities for the year.

From October 28 to November 4, the first mission in our new church took place, conducted by Father Salinsky from Arlington. During that week we had mass every morning, discussions for the college girls during the afternoon, and services at night. The mission was a great success.

In February Father MacCarthy, our pastor, was transferred to Arlington. Father Missler, from Ohio, took his place. It is to the great working spirit of Father MacCarthy that we owe our church. A farewell party in his honor was given in Crewe Community Center.

As last year, our meetings were very successfully conducted by Father Silk. Many non-Catholic girls visited us very frequently.

Olga Rodriguez, our Puerto Rican friend, was the president of the club.

We are looking forward to the coming year, which we hope will be as successful as this one.

Freshman Commission

THE Freshman Commission, whose members are representatives from the freshman class to the Y. W. C. A., was elected and organized in early fall. The Commission works with and for the Y. W. C. A., striving to aid the endeavors of the organization in any way possible. A very impressive installation service for the

the traditional "hanging of the green." The entire student body took part in this ceremony, and afterwards, led by the Commission, gathered around the tree to sing carols.

The members of the Commission were the following: Nell Cake, Barbara Assaid, Carolyn Stanley, Jean Carol Parker, Don-members of the Commission was held in the Episcopal Church.

The Commission's activities were numerous. At the Senior dance, we were in charge of a refreshment booth, selling soft drinks and nabs at intermission. At Christmas time, we decorated the tree which stood in the Rotunda, and conducted nie Devine, Pat McLemore, Betty Bentley, Nancy Nelson, Joan DeAlba, Ann Carter Wendenburg, Frances Motley, Georgette Puryear, and Mary Campbell. We shall be on hand next September to greet the incoming class of '56, and to acquaint them with the traditions, the spirit of Longwood College.

“DEDICATION,” our group entertainment of the year, utilized the three performing arts—poetry, music, and dance. Never, we thought, was dance’s true meaning more clearly stated. There was real cooperative effort. The germs, the mythical Phoenix, bounding Kinetic Energizers, the many and singular “Years of the Mod-let go and say—“goodbye.” Echoes of “Stars, Songs, Faces” faded into silence. Our work had been a pleasure to us.

Scandinavian Festival had us in a “tizzy.” We had our choice of being an enchanted person, a spring leaf, or a not-so-old maid, hopeful of Leap Year. As true harbingers of spring, we took part in May Day.

The performance of “Jesu, Joy in Man’s Desiring” expressed the spirit of Dedication. “Years of the Modern” left us perspective and a little introspective. We saw ourselves as seniors, loosening hands to Thus ended a stimulating year, one full of portents. Our capable leaders were Marian Beckner, president; Margie Hood, secretary-treasurer; and Peggy Harris, costume chairman. Our adviser, Mrs. Landrum, has never failed us; we are grateful to her.

Cotillion Club

THIS year proved to be another successful one for the Cotillion Club. In the fall, thirty upperclassmen were asked to become members; in the spring, ninety-five freshmen were asked. Those accepting these bids proudly wore the traditional yellow ribbon around their ankle for a week afterward, and later, in March, endured the rigors of "goat day." At the command of old members of Cotillion, the goats cleaned rooms, wrote letters, ran errands, and acted in the fashion of all good goats. The long day ended with a tired but smiling flock of goats, each one feeling more a part of our organization and of school life. The final phase of initiation came later when the enthusiastic goats decorated the gym for the spring dance.

The big night was April 5, 1952, when our annual Cotillion Club dance was held. Spring formals, gardenias, pastel streamers, and melodious strains of music furnished by the "Aristocrats" from Roanoke, made the gym a delight. Happy couples danced at what we think was the most wonderful dance of the year. Jean Ridenour, our lovely figure leader, led the members of our club around the dance floor to form a clever pattern. Attractive programs were given to each girl as she went onto the dance floor. Other entertainment was provided for our members and their dates to make the week-end complete, one for all to remember.

The Cotillion Club progressed during the year under the capable leadership of our president, "Bootie" Poarch. Conway Rice served ably as our business manager, with Ann Moseley as our efficient treasurer. Mr. Boyd Coyner was again our very helpful faculty adviser.

Athletic Association

ATHLETICS are a major part of Longwood. The new students of '51-'52 immediately caught the enthusiasm displayed by upper-classmen and joined in the activities with the true Longwood spirit. A Sports Demonstration was held at the beginning of the year to acquaint new students with the sports on the campus. The preceding pages contain a glimpse of these activities and the successful year that we had.

The council wishes to extend to Miss Iler our deep appreciation for her services as our indispensable adviser. We would like to thank all participants for their splendid sportsmanship and interest.

The color cup competition went into full swing during hockey season. Each class played heartily and joyously.

In the fall of the year, the A. A. sponsored a trip to Richmond so that the girls interested in hockey might see the Scottish Hockey Team play. This trip proved very informing, as the teams that played were skilled at this sport.

The Varsity Hockey Team had one of its most successful seasons. The teamwork and cooperation of each earnest player paid big dividends. The varsity team had an undefeated season, securing victories over Westhampton College, Roanoke College, and Lynchburg College. The captain of this hard-working team was Jean Ridenour.

During the tennis singles tournament, many girls played hard to reach the finals. They proved to be exciting with a red and white, Elsie Wentz, competing against a green and white, Clara Borum. Clara came through for her colors by defeating Elsie.

Longwood's varsity basketball team saw a successful year under the leadership of Clara Borum as captain.

Class volley ball games ran close on the heels of basketball. Girls hurried to complete their eight practices needed to be eligible to play for their classes.

Archery came with spring time. Girls spent hours on the A. A. Field, bow and arrow in hand, shooting for the "bull's eye."

Fine sportsmanship was exhibited by both colors in all the class games. The winners proudly collected points toward putting their colors on the cup.

Each year, the A. A. gives one of the most outstanding individual awards of the year. These awards are the blue blazers and the white blazers. Girls wearing these awards are recognized by all for their participation in a variety of sports. The white blazer awards symbolizes most notable participation; the blue blazer award, notable participation.

In this review, mention should be made of the duties of the A. A. Council. Included on the Council are the Executive Committee and managers of all sports, both varsity and class teams. These managers work with the captains of individual teams to see that activities are carried through as scheduled.

H₂O Club

THE H₂O Club moved forward this year under the able assistance of our faculty adviser, Miss Rebecca Brockenbrough. Working with Miss Brockenbrough were our president, Bunnie Ricks; treasurer, Ann Harding; and secretary, Ann Crowder. They led the club through a successful year.

In the fall Blanton Ferguson and Jean Ridenour were elected to head our annual swimming pageant. Much of their time was spent in making this pageant one to be remembered. The theme, "A Wet Christmas Eve," was presented through a story told by the narrator, Sally Wilson. During the narration, wooden soldiers, icicles, water bugs, Christmas stars, sailor dolls, and Hiawatha with his Indian maid enacted their part of the story through water-ballet figures. There were the traditional fancy divers, clowns, and a Santa Claus to entertain us between acts. The finale was the formation of an H₂O with candles. The club would like to commend the non-members who worked with us in order to make the pageant a success.

In March, William and Mary and Longwood swimming teams competed in an inter-collegiate meet in the Longwood College Pool. In April our swimming team journeyed to Madison for a similar meet. Eleanor Weddle, our student swimming instructor, worked with the Red Cross in preparing many of us for the instructor's course, which was given in March. In the spring a dinner was given by the club at the Longwood Estate in honor of the new members, who had received bids in the fall and spring.

This year each member helped with the recreational swimming; thus many students became interested in the swimming activities of the school.

Monogram Club

THE Monogram Club's main purpose is to stimulate interest in sports and to recognize athletic ability, scholarships, and sportsmanship. We select as members juniors and seniors who are most outstanding in furthering this purpose.

In October new members were elected into the club. We welcomed Nell Bradshaw, Clara Borum, Helen Castros, Ann Crowder, Sarah Harvie, Lou Jamison, Ann Jones, Beverly Marsh, Nancy Park, Audrey Ramsey, Frances Ann Ramsey, Frances Stringfellow, Betty Tyler, and Sue Webb. Our initiation ceremony for them was held in the new AA office on first floor Student building. The following day the new members wore blue and white ribbons, which are the colors of the club.

Credit for the success of our circus booth goes to Margie Hood, who decorated our booth in the colors of our club with the LC monogram in the background. Surprise "knick-knacks" were wrapped and sold to the circus audience.

On February 14 we sponsored "Red and White Day" and sold red hearts to the class members. On March 17 we sponsored "Green and White Day" and sold green shamrocks. This tradition helps to promote class spirit at Longwood.

The cabin at Longwood Estate was again our responsibility, and we found the organizations signing up for its use on the week-ends. In the spring all the new and old members went out to the cabin, worked hard, and got it shining once more. After our labors we were rewarded by a picnic supper.

Much gratitude goes to Miss Iler, who served as our helpful adviser. We are proud of our capable president, Edith Kennon. Our other members include Bunnie Ricks, secretary; Rachael Peters, treasurer; Marion Beckner, Nell Dalton, Peggy Harris, Margie Hood, Jean Ridenour, Ilene Russell, Nancy Walker and Eleanor Weddle.

BUZZING voices rebounded from the green walls of the chapter room once again. It was good to be together after three months, but all agreed that summer had been good too.

Fall rushing was soon upon us. We opened our hearts to our new sisters: Patti Derring, Cleo Holladay, and Ann Dudley.

Others opened their hearts to Jean Kreienbaum, Nat, and Patti, and sealed their agreements with a pin. Jean Ridenour and June Horton went one better and now wear ried Santa Claus to the boys and girls of John Randolph School, and to the underprivileged children of the Endicott School.

February brought rushing to the limelight once more. With pride we received: Beth Kent, Nancy Nelson, Mary Hundley, Carolyn Vanture, June Manlove, Elizabeth Crockett, Florence Blake, Mary Anne Evans, Bette Saffelle, Ann Bryan, and Joyce Karlet.

We were all very proud of Pat Tuggle, who received the national Scholarship Ring of Tri Sigma. She also served as House Council president; she, Marian, and Jean Ridenour served on AKG, Jean as president. Marian and Jean gained another honor by being presented with white blazers. Blanton received recognition by being chosen Circus representative.

Thanks to Liz Hoskins, our room received a new face. At Christmas, we carried Santa Claus to the boys and girls of John Randolph School, and to the underprivileged children of the Endicott School.

We express gratitude and love to our officers: Polly Brothers, president; Connie Rice, vice-president; Jean Kreienbaum, recording secretary; Sarah Ann Jones, corresponding secretary; and Margaret Taylor, treasurer. Our heart-felt thanks go to Miss Trent, whose understanding and guidance have ironed out many wrinkles.

Kappa Delta

IN September all of the Kappa Deltas assembled eagerly in the chapter room, a little saddened by the vacant seats left by sisters who graduated in June.

Many Kappa Deltas held offices and took an active part in school activities: Ann Moody, president of Choir; Maria Jackson, vice-president of Student Government, president of the Spanish Club, Who's Who; Bootie Poarch, president of Cotillion Club; Dolores Hoback, president of Student Standards, and mentioned in Who's again when Maria Jackson was chosen Circus Queen and Pat Altwegg, Animal Trainer. Jean Partridge acted as co-chairman of the Junior's circus skit and Barbara Caskey was in charge of the winning float in the circus parade.

Spring rushing resulted in the addition of Bobbie Allen, Betty Bentley, Jo Burley, Nancy Brown, Nell Cake, Betty Davis, Shirley Lewis, Pat McLemore, Carolyn Stanley, Jean Talley, Lucy Thwing, and Peggy Worthington.

FLASH! ASA's are in the news! B. B. Wilson has been serving as president of Student Government. This year our Betty Scott was editor of the VIRGINIAN. The Chairman of our Senior Dance was our own Bunnie Ricks. Also AKG and Who's Who recognized several of our seniors. Along with "brains" we also have beauties, for B. B. and Bunnie represented us on May Court. Margie directed the dance for the May Day festivities.

by the graduating seniors, we gained five pledges: Dot Bankhead, Lou Kitts, Dot Cassada, Lynn Hill and Libby McClung.

Our Founder's Day was a very memorable and impressive one, for it was our fiftieth anniversary. Each one of us held deep gratitude and appreciation for our five founders. Our banquet, well planned by Ann Keith, carried out the theme of our Golden Anniversary.

In December, our "Castle" walls glowed with Christmas cheer. The high-light of

During this year we spent many happy hours of work and play together. As June approaches, some of us will shut our "castle" door behind us for the last time. But wherever we may go, we shall keep this in mind: "Though years may separate us and turn our locks to grey, yet still we'll be the same old friends in dear old ASA."

Zeta Tau Alpha

IN the early fall Longwood Zetas returned to a year of hard work and fun, eager and excited to tell of a wonderful summer, and full of plans for the best year ever. Returning with them was Miss Leola Wheeler, beloved adviser, who had been missed by every chapter member. She and two new pledges, Joyce Cutrell and Joanne Steck, were welcome additions to the Zeta room.

Garbee and Joyce returned with sparkling diamonds; Pat, with a pin. Happy ansors of Zeta: Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Simonini. Sophomore beauty, Mary Ann Breslin, made her sisters very proud when she was selected by the student body to serve on May Court.

During the whole year, the Zetas and their alumnae continued to work on the garden planted in front of new Tabb Hall. A plaque bearing their name was placed in its center.

Theta Sigma Upsilon

AFTER a summer of fun and frolic, we eagerly returned in September to begin a full and happy year. We were saddened by the absence of our Thetas who were graduated in June, but fall rushing brought us four wonderful new sisters: Mary Jean Carlyle, Paula Dovel, Doris Underwood, and Laura Lee Fritts.

In the fall our chests swelled with pride when we learned that we had been made a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Council. We were also proud of our senior dance intermission party.

Student Government Council, and Faith Smith was a May Court attendant for the sophomore class. We squealed with delight when two of our girls, Maxine Watts and Faith Smith, were pinned, and when Mary Bennett received a ring this year.

At the end of a wonderful year, we reluctantly bid farewell to our beloved seniors: Joyce Humphries, Branchy Fristoe, Maxine Watts, Laura Lee Fritts, Eleanor Weddle, "Chris" Davis, and Gay Power.

Our project for the year, to send relief to the patients at Carville, was successfully completed.

Fall rushing brought us Shirley Perkins and Emma Wilson. We welcomed our new sisters into our family by giving them a party in the chapter room.

The chapter room looked beautiful for and Frances Ann received diamonds; and Wilma received a Texas A & M miniature.

With regret we bid farewell to our beloved seniors: Peggy, Inez, Paige, Virginia Dare, Audrey "Drake," Frances Ann, and Mary Frances, and to Virginia Berry and Wilma, who are transferring to University of Virginia. To Sue, Shirley, P. and Nellie, who are leaving us this year, we extend our love and best wishes for the future. The rest of us will be back to make next year the best ever for Delta Sigma Epsilon.

Tau Theta Pi

AFTER summer had come and gone like the turning of a page in a mystery novel, the seven remaining members of Tau Theta Pi returned to Longwood to resume their studies.

We found our activities directed by our second set of officers since the conception of our fraternity in the spring of 1950: president, Madison McClintic; vice-president, Harold Hutter; secretary and treas-league baseball game, plans happily realized. We held our pledging and initiation ceremonies in January, and we are justly proud of our new members: Robert Hawkins, Tom Moore, and Herbert Goodman. We were quite sorry to lose one of our number, Jack Huegal, who graduated in January. Easily the biggest event of the year for us was the Men's Student Production, which we jointly sponsored with urer, Harold Griffin. We were again privileged to have the able advice of Mr. Norman Myers, our sponsor. We found our ranks somewhat depleted because of the graduation of a number of our members: Ned Orange, Shep Elmore, Berman Scott, Leonard Shaw, John Cook, and James Thompson. James Clark left us also to go into business.

In the spring great plans were made for a trip to Washington to attend a major-the Men's Student Government Association. Our hope was that the production would receive the acclaim that was poured out on the first production of two years ago.

Now that two full years have passed since the conception of our fraternity, we feel justly proud of our accomplishment. We look forward to having at Longwood a large group of masculine students.

Acknowledgment

AS another year at Longwood College draws to a close, and with it another VIRGINIAN is completed, we wish to express our thanks to those who made this VIRGINIAN a reality. Without the aid and cooperation of the following the job could not have been done:

Lynchburg Engraving Company for their aid in planning the layout and the art work. Especially, we thank Mr. M. L. Glover for his invaluable assistance;

J. P. Bell Company Incorporated for printing our annual and Mr. W. L. Burton for his untiring efforts and ready advice;

Fred Dudley Studio, especially Mr. Dudley, for their assistance in making the individual and group pictures:

Miss Virginia Bedford for her timely advice and instruction on our art work;

Miss Nancy Foster, our literary adviser, for reading and rereading our annual for us;

Mr. T. A. McCorkle, our adviser, who always had time to help us over a rough spot and inspire us on our journey;

The Student Body, Faculty and Administration for their interest and cooperation.

Finally, our thanks go to the Staff for their hard work, patience and cooperation. To the incoming editor and business manager, we wish a successful year and a staff as wonderful as ours.

If you, the Students, can find pleasant memories of your year at Longwood here, it is through the untiring efforts of these people.
